A Quick try

Read the text. Write the correct letter in the box.

- 1 'Mum, look at that man,' said Gavin. 'He's talking loudly on the phone.'
- 'Yes, he should talk softly when he's on the train because he's annoying other people,' said Mum.
- Other people on the train also looked at the man.
- 5 The man saw the annoyed faces and he felt embarrassed.

Use the skill

- 1 Read the question. the keywords 'What', 'the man' and 'in the next few moments'.
- 2 the sentences about the man. What is he doing? What did he see? How did he feel?
- 3 Think about what might be the man's next action.

1. What may the man do in the next few moments?

- A. scold other people
- B. raise his voice
- C. speak in a soft voice
- D. get off the train

What will the man do immediately after he found his voice was too loud?

Read the text. Answer the question in a complete sentence.

1 Sally is my best friend ever. When I'm happy, she looks at me with her brown eyes. When I'm sad or sick, she comes to me and holds my hand. She cannot go to school with me, however, because she is a dog.

When I got home from school today, I sat on the sofa and cried.

Use the skill

- 1 Read the question.  the keywords 'What', 'Sally' and 'do'.
- 2 _____ what Sally does when the writer is sad.
- 3 Think about what Sally would do when she saw the writer cry.

2. What will Sally do?

Use the base form after 'will'.

Dear Sam,

How are you doing? It's sad that we are not in the same class this year. Our friend Natalie had some bad behaviour at school this week. I'm very concerned about her because she is our good friend. In the past she behaved well, but lately she has been very different.

10

On the school bus, we should sit quietly. Instead, Natalie shouts and throws things at other students. She even pulls the hair of other girls. No one wants to sit with her.

15

We should listen carefully during our lessons in the classroom, but Natalie is always talking to other classmates. Also, she shouldn't run in the corridor because it's very dangerous. However, she ran very fast and knocked me over. I didn't get hurt and, of course, I wasn't angry with her.

20

Today Natalie talked rudely to our English teacher Mr Chan. She shouted loudly in the classroom and she said some very bad words. Mr Chan was very mad and asked her to see him after school.

Now, classmates in our class dislike Natalie. No one even wants to have lunch with her. However, I believe something happened to her and made her behaviour different. Do you want to have lunch with her together next Monday? I hope we can listen to her and show our care.

Love,
Eric

Sham Shui Po Music Club

Newsletter

December

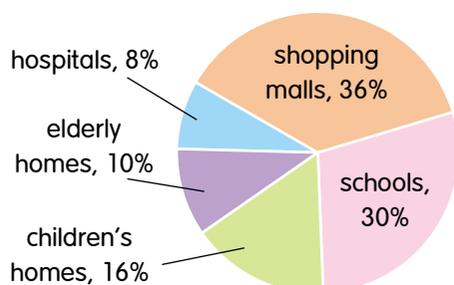

Dear members,

This is our last newsletter of the year, so it's a good time to review some of the highlights this year.

It has been a busy year, with 6 concerts at the Cultural Centre and 40 performances by our club. In August, four of our members played in a concert. You can see a photo of them on the next page. Katy is the guitar player with a necklace. George is the piano player with a bow tie. Mary is the singer with a watch, and Ivy is another singer with sunglasses.

Another photo on the next page is a picture of our Christmas concert last week. You can see four of our junior members. Jason is the boy with sunglasses who is singing. Lisa is the guitar player in a red dress. Gilbert is the violin player in a suit, and Tina is another violin player in a yellow vest.

We've also performed in different places this year.

Do you have any old musical instruments at home? Our music club is helping a charity give old musical instruments to poor children again this year. Support this good cause and give your donation online at www.sspmusicclub.org.hk. Now we are at just half of our target of $20,000.

Finally, members, please remember to practise your instruments over the Christmas holidays!
